

From split to speedy benefits success

Client

Printing services

2,675 employees
(commercial and publication)

Challenge

When leading global packaging company Sonoco spun off a new entity, TOPPAN Packaging, both organizations needed to quickly establish and manage their own independent benefits programs under tight timelines and complex platform migration needs.

How Aptia delivered

Aptia's experts deployed a mid-year conversion, executing full platform implementation in under four months.

Proven results

Implementation was completed in under 120 days

The client rated Aptia 10/10 for implementation performance

Aptia's speed, agility and collaboration were called out

How AptiaOne offers even more

AptiaOne embeds our decades of experience into an intelligent benefits solution that:

Combines proven service with advanced benefits technology

Transforms complex benefits administration into one connected experience that empowers action

Takes administration from reactive to proactive

» See AptiaOne in action

The results presented reflect Aptia's current service delivery model. The client featured is not yet live on AptiaOne. AptiaOne is designed to extend beyond most of the capabilities of our current platform.

Founded to shape the future of pensions, health, and insurance solutions, Aptia is a leading professional services firm dedicated to simplifying complexity for businesses and individuals. We bring together cutting-edge technology and deep industry expertise to help organisations navigate an evolving landscape with clarity and confidence.